MONEY COLLECTION

All school dinner and school trip money should be sent into school in a sealed envelope marked with your child's name and handed in through the class teacher/teaching assistant, this is recorded in the class account book before it is handed over to the school office. Money should not be handed into the school office unless you have a query with payment. Correct change would be very much appreciated. Payments can be made by cash or cheque; dinner money cheques made payable to St Helens MBC, school trip cheques payable to St Peter's CE Primary. Both dinner and trip money should be forwarded to school on a Monday whenever possible.

Thank you
Miss Blackledge
School Business Manager

A big THANK YOU from the PTA for all your amazing donations which will be up-cycled into wonderful Mother's Day gifts
