

Alternative spellings /ch/

Write the sentences down with the correct spelling.

Look at that great pickchure picture over there!

I like it when we go on an adventure advencher.

A sloth is an odd looking creature creecher.

I wonder what will happen in the fewcher future.

Alternative spellings /ch/

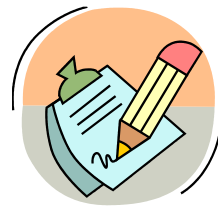

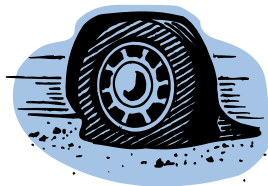

Write the sentences down with the correct spelling.

I love looking at the nature naicher around us.

If you are the pirate, you can capcher capture me.

My mum had a puncture puncher at the weekend.

I will sign the rules with my signature signacher.

Alternative spellings /ch/

Write the sentences down with the correct spelling.

Here is a mixture mixcher of sweets in a jar.

I think my leg has a frackcher fracture.

Look out for the vulchers vultures in the desert.

We're off to buy some new furniture furnicher.

Alternative spellings /ch/

Write the sentences down with the correct spelling.

I keep my rabbit in a wooden hutch huch.

Try and cach catch me if you can!

We are going to a football mach match.

I like to sketch skech in my drawing book.

Alternative spellings /ch/

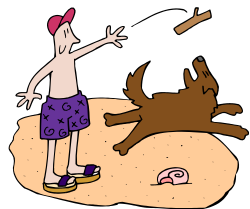

Write the sentences down with the correct spelling.

At the park my dog went to fech fetch the stick.

I cannot wait to play football on the pich pitch.

I have to wear a cruch crutch for six weeks!

My hand is beginning to ich itch badly.

Alternative spellings /ch/

Write the sentences down with the correct spelling.

I like to dress up as a wich witch.

The dinner lady works in the kitchen kichen.

Will you pass me the kechup ketchup please?

In P.E. we all have to strech stretch our legs.

