The Great Explorer

Today you are going to watch a small clip from a story called 'The Great Explorer' by Chris Judge. Watch this clip on YouTube. This is not the full story in the clip.

This clip is short and snappy like a movie trailer! It shows a young boy called Tom going on an adventure. What is missing is speech. I would like you to write a short script (4 sentences minimum) to go over the video. Make up what think the story will be about.

Example- "It was a quiet Monday morning when Tom found out some terrible news."
